

G I V A T I

the first war story of its kind

THE LONE SOLDIER

A woman in military gear, Sara Cohen, is walking in a desert setting with other soldiers. She is holding hands with a soldier on her right. The background shows a dirt road and hills.

OUR HERO SARA COHEN

Sara Cohen , an ordinary 21-year-old American woman, has a fateful encounter on a heritage trip for Jewish-American 20-somethings that leads her to take up arms and become an Israeli soldier.

SARA'S STORY

GIVATI

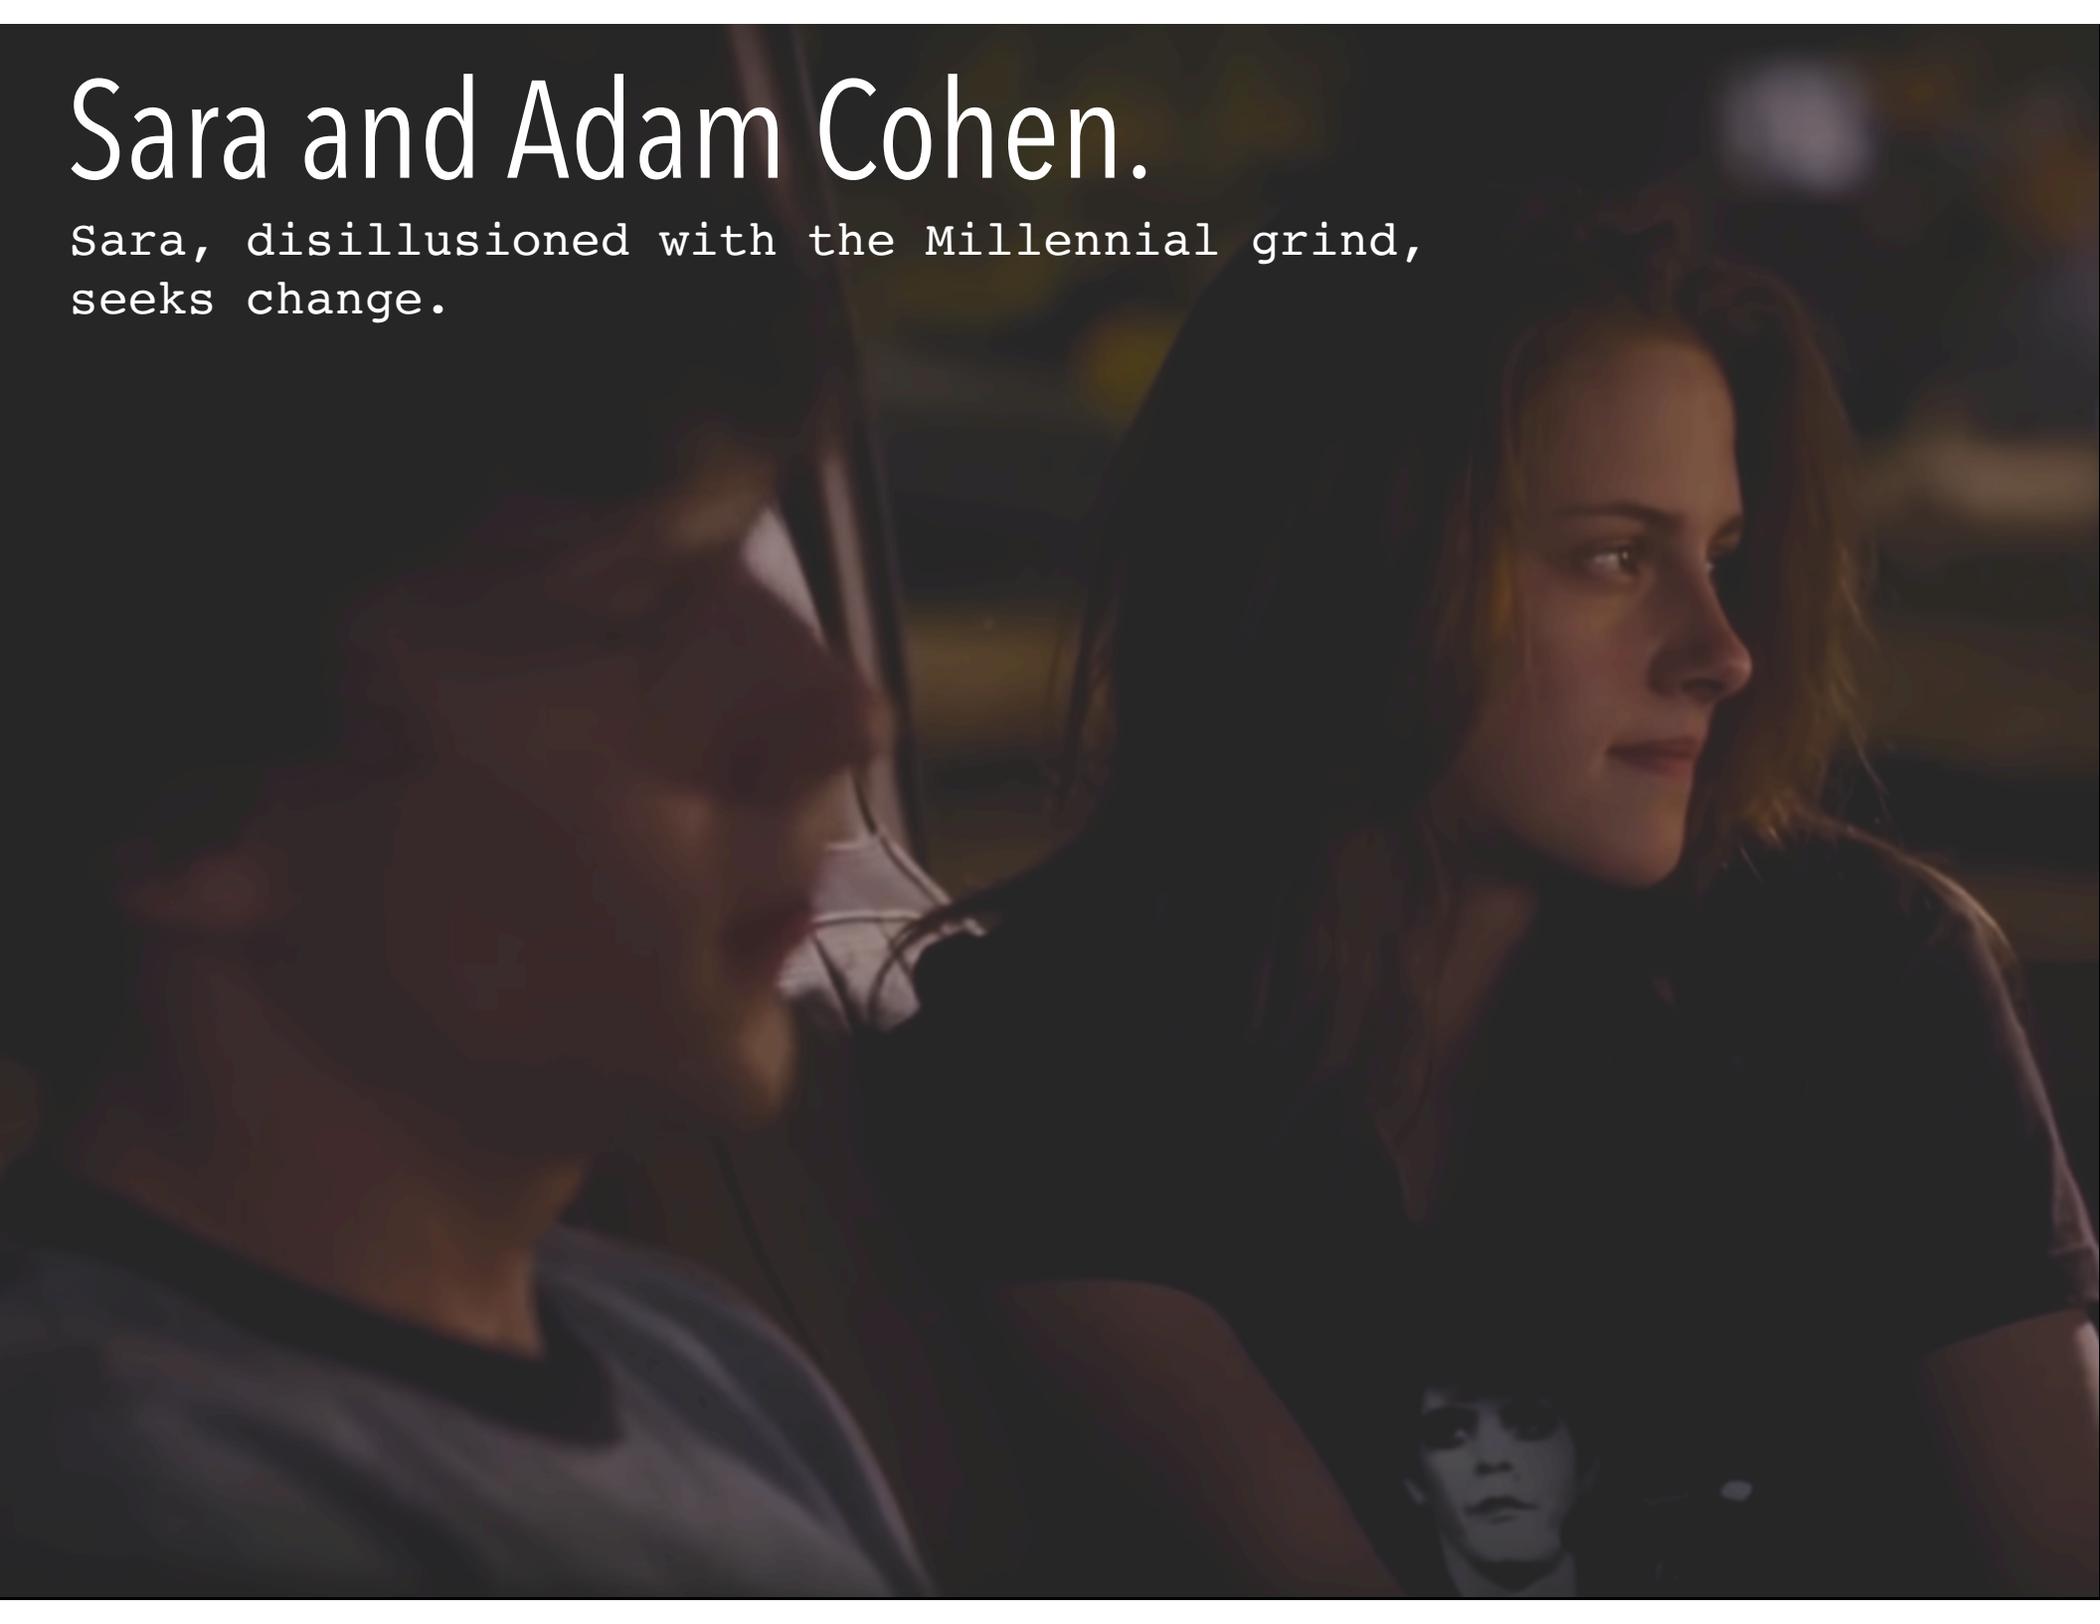

Meet the Cohen family.

Living in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Israeli expats Yoav and Tziporah, or 'JOE and CINDY', are the adoptive Israeli parents of two very American, very apathetic 20-somethings.

Sara and Adam Cohen.

Sara, disillusioned with the Millennial grind, seeks change.

Experience Eretz Zion

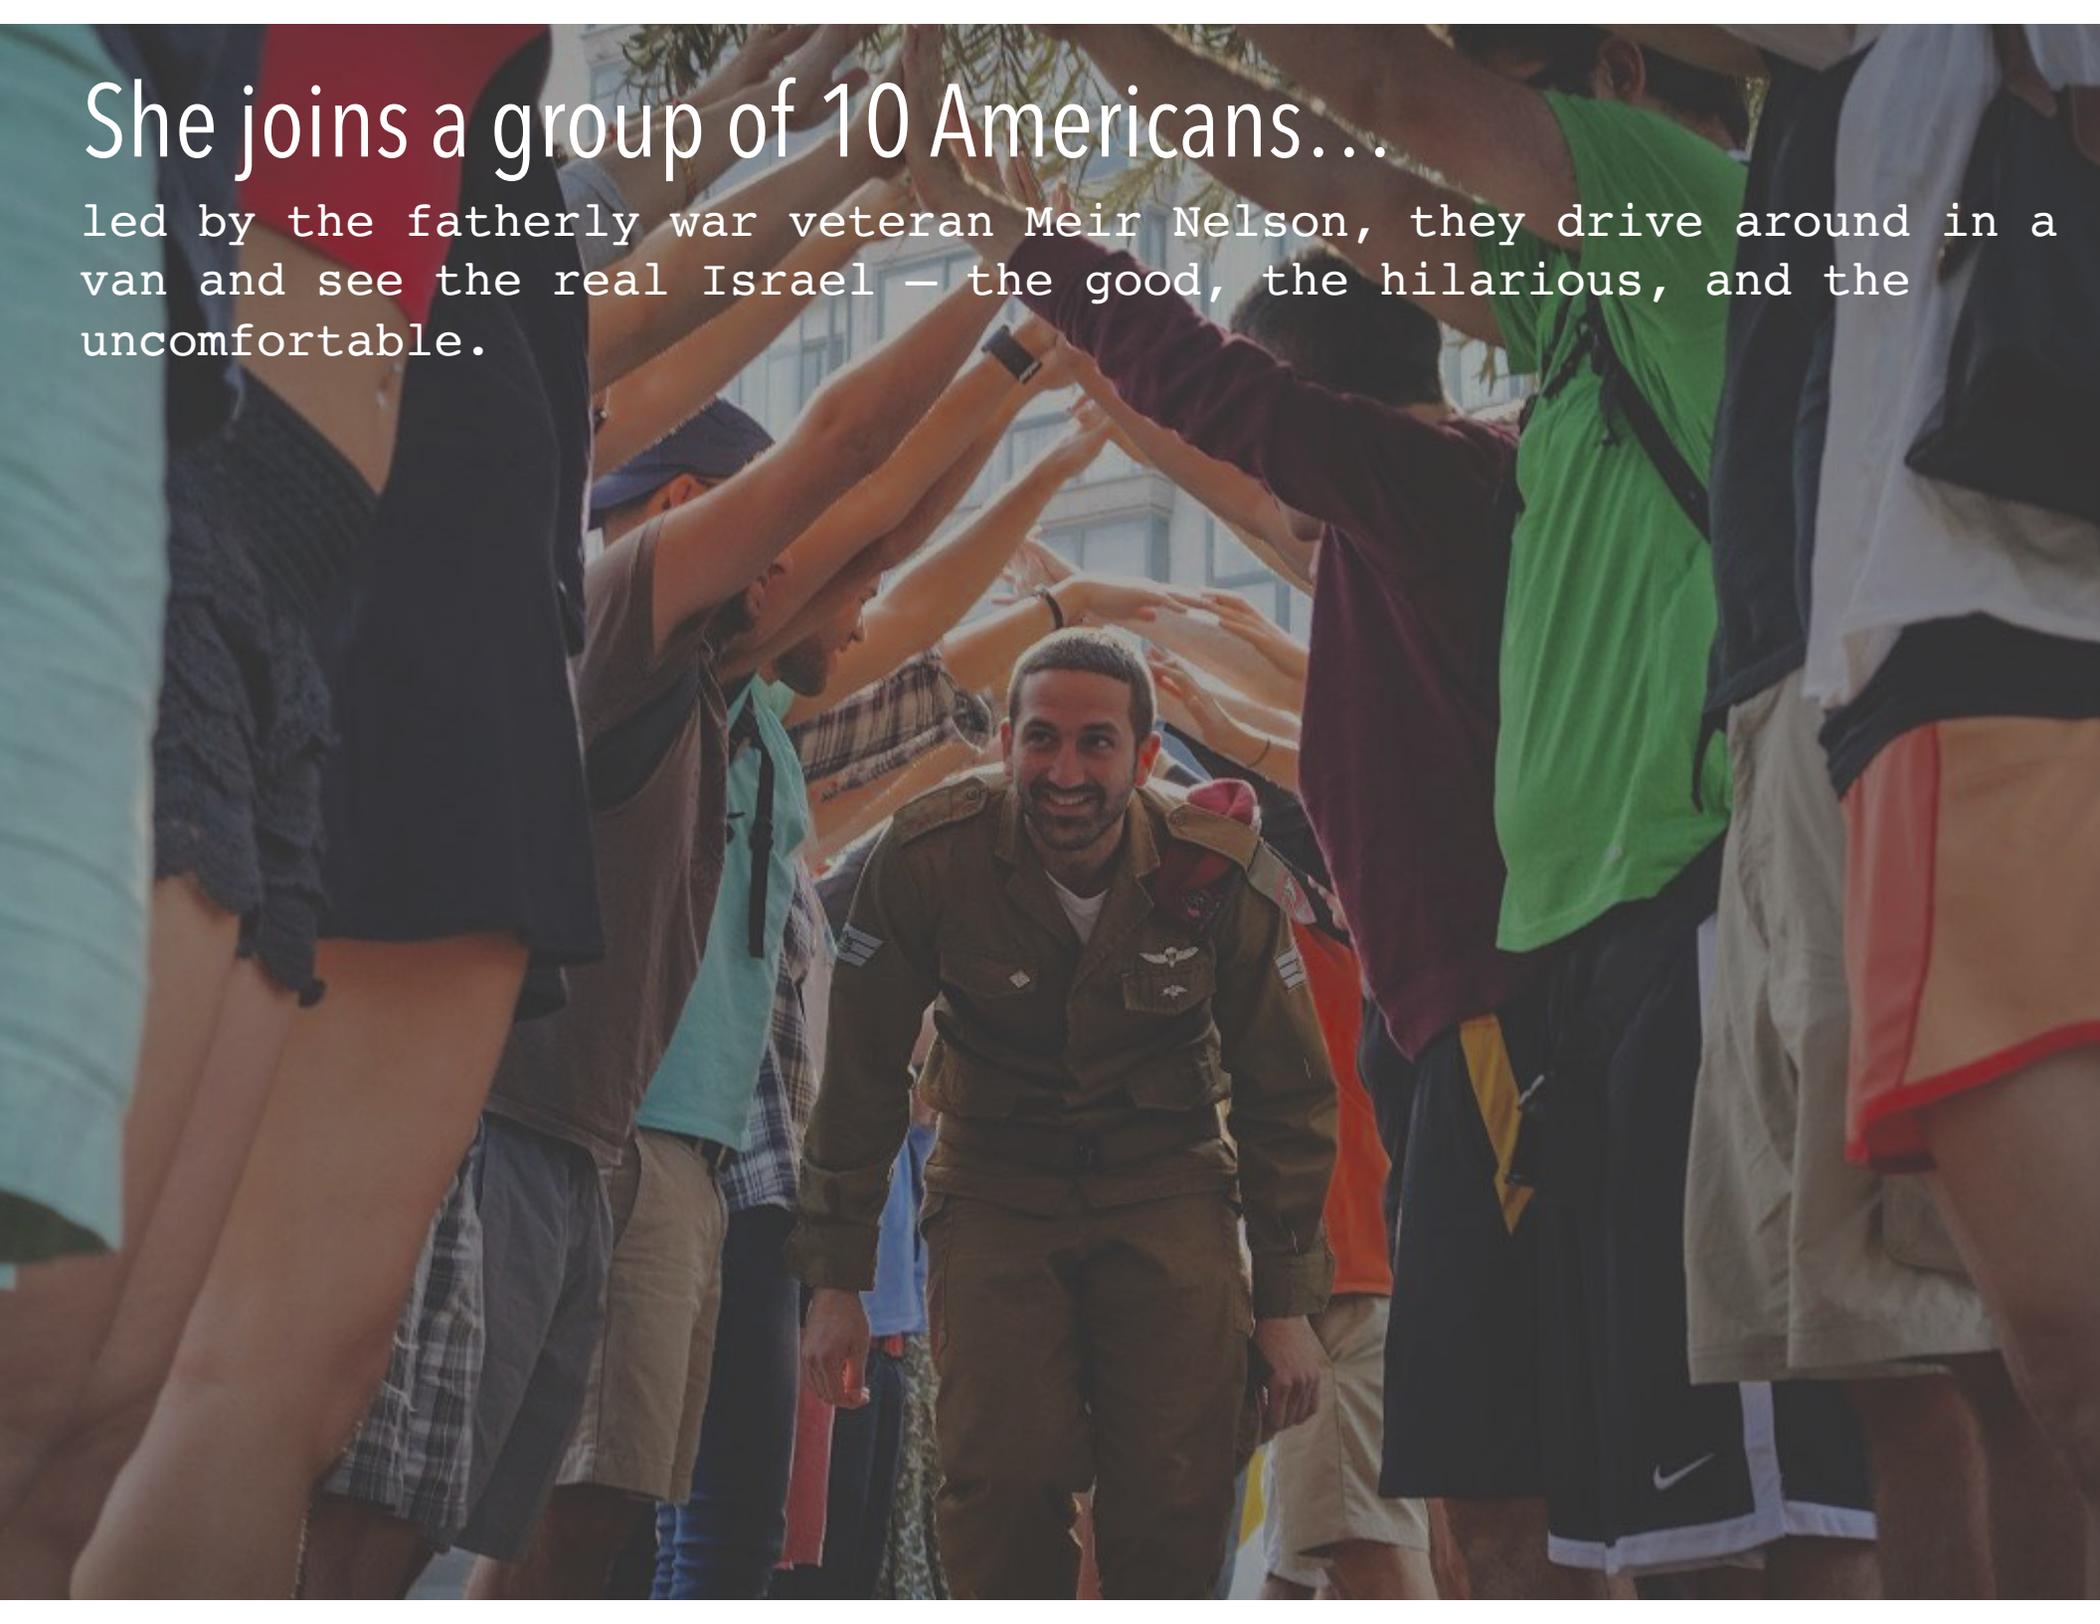

She visits Israel for her the first time on a small, free, fictional tour program called 'Experience Eretz Zion.'

Do we want this as own slide or as speech for previous slide?

She joins a group of 10 Americans...

led by the fatherly war veteran Meir Nelson, they drive around in a van and see the real Israel – the good, the hilarious, and the uncomfortable.

Weeks later,

in Jerusalem, Sara is nearly killed during a daytime terrorist truck attack. But though she escapes unscathed, Sara has fallen in love with Israel; she wants to stay

Sara makes Aliyah

Sara decides becomes an Israeli Citizen.

She volunteers to join an IDF infantry combat-unit.

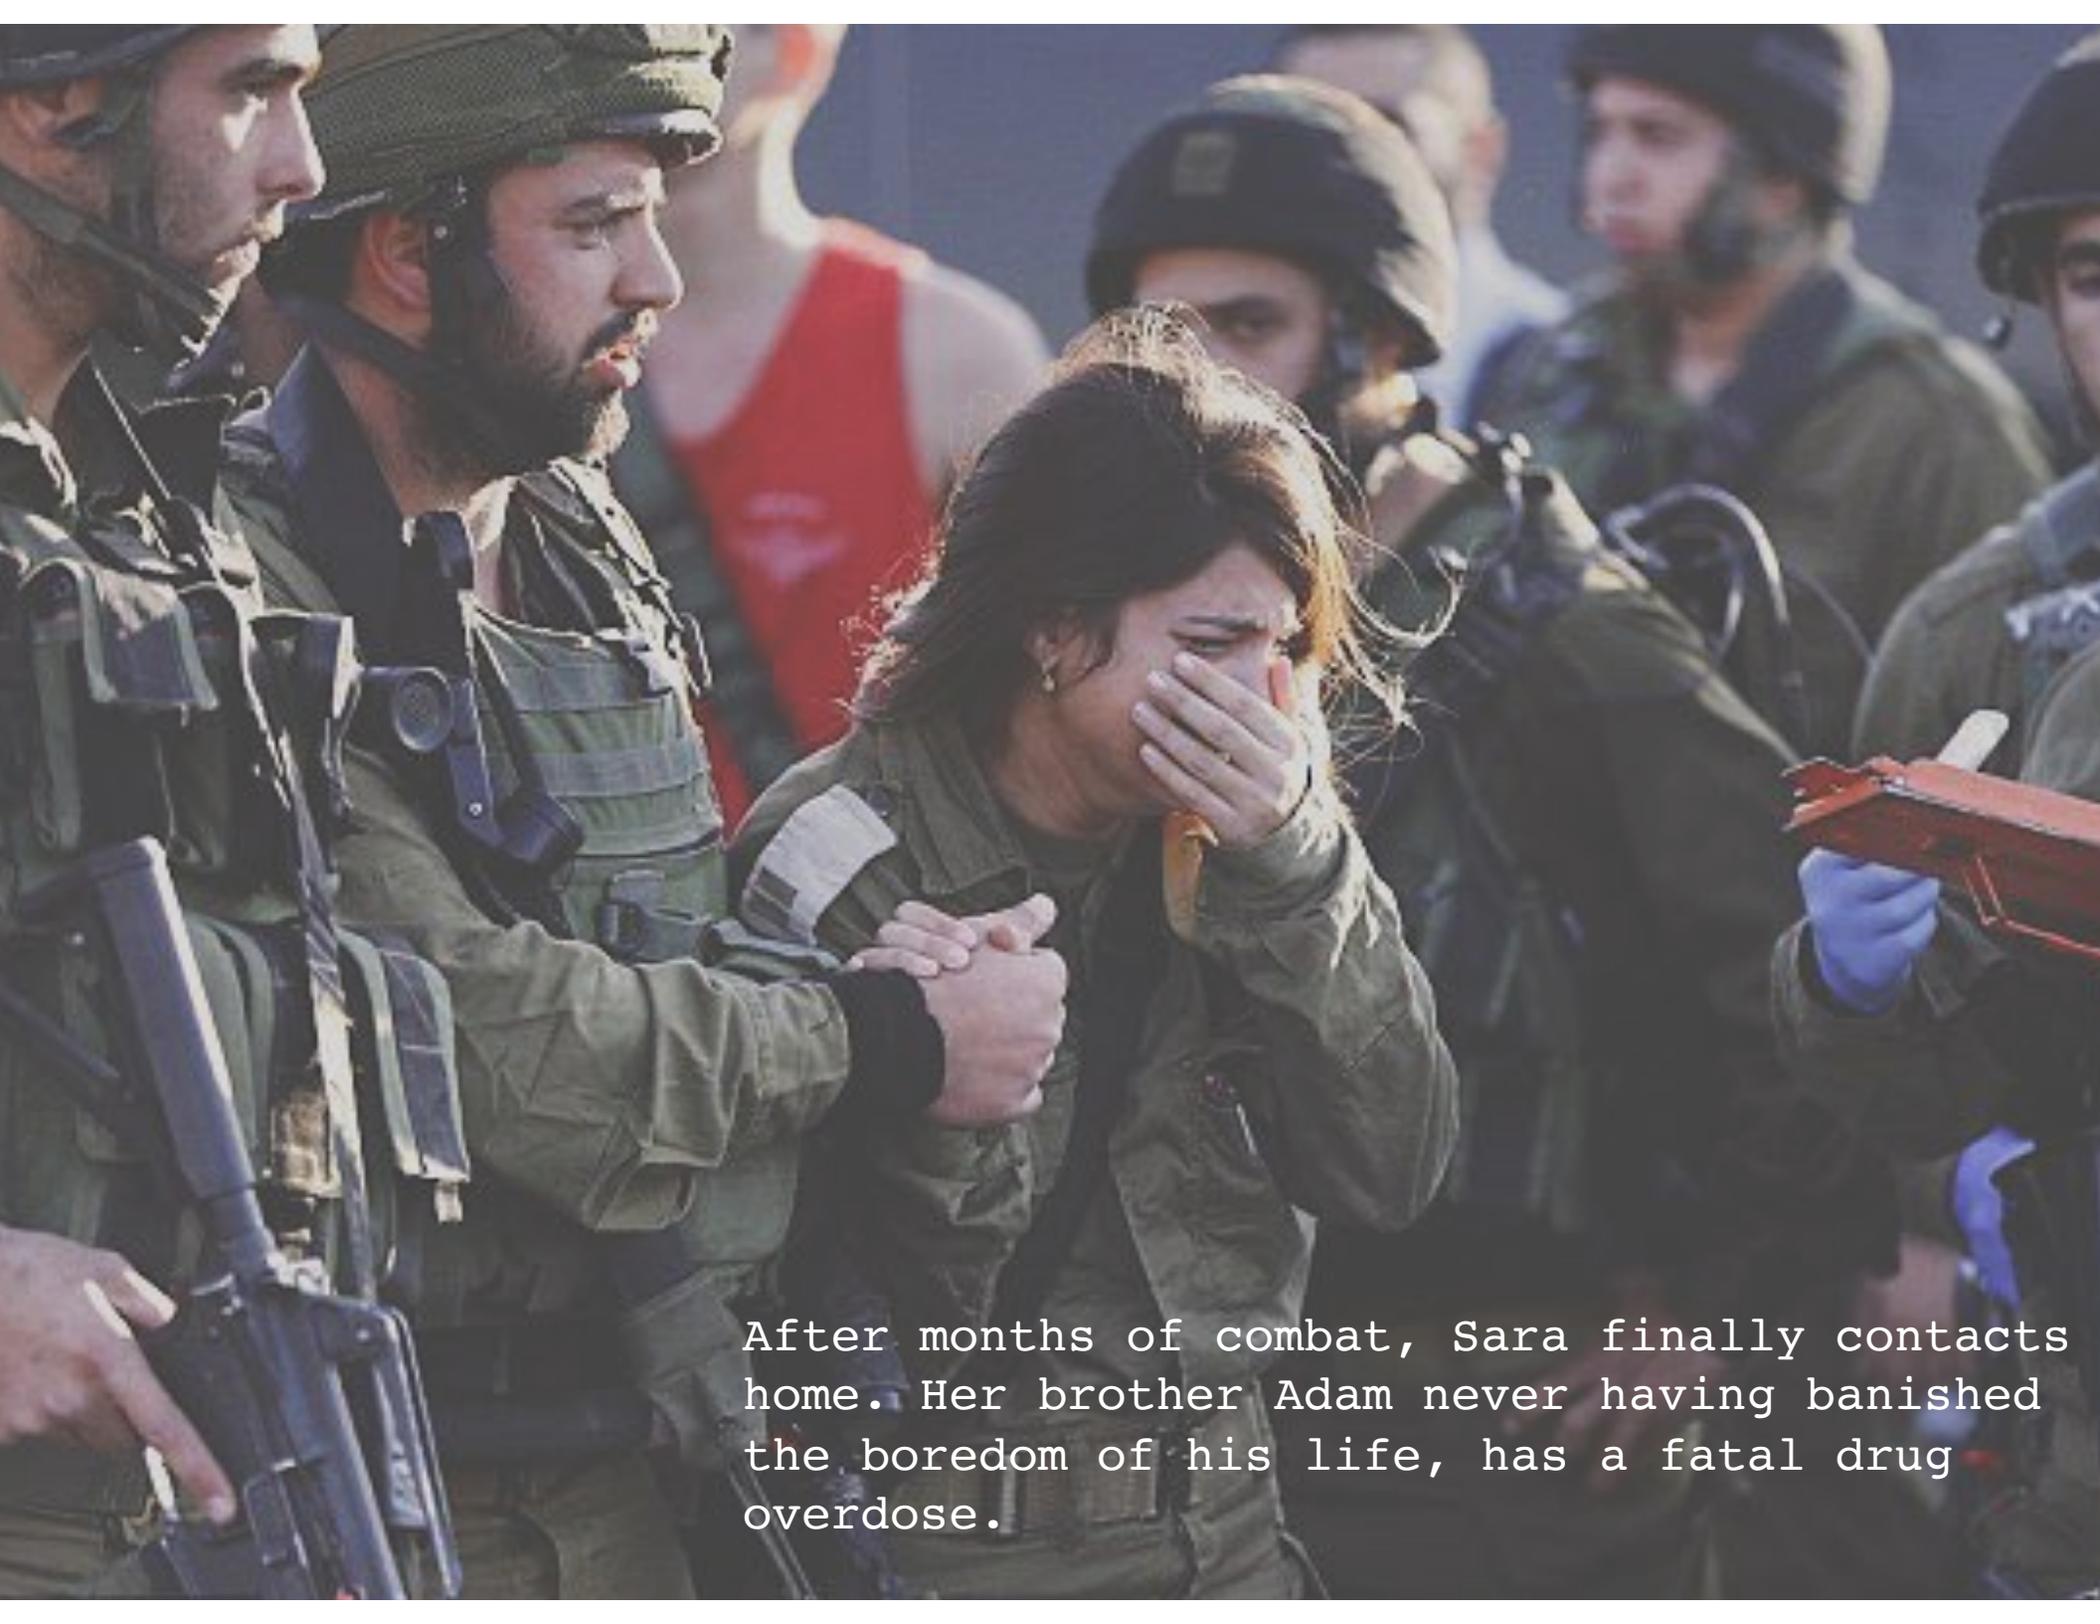

Sara is among one of the first three women allowed into a new 26-person Givati Special Forces squadron

Cpt. Sara Cohen

Sara fights on the frontlines in the West Bank, Gaza, Egypt and Lebanon.

Do we mention something about Sara getting promoted? Can we add a timeline to from whenever she joins to the meat of the action.?

After months of combat, Sara finally contacts home. Her brother Adam never having banished the boredom of his life, has a fatal drug overdose.

Sara's last tour

Sara honorably retires from the IDF after seeing her fair share of combat. (Final battle? When is the last time we see her in the army?)

She returns home to a normal life in suburban Massachusetts –
Is this ending set yet??

I need to know the final shot of the film? Is it her looking in the mirror?
